

CHRISTOPHER J. BELTRAN, PsyD

LICENSED CLINICAL AND FORENSIC PSYCHOLOGIST
#FLPY6432

EDUCATION

2000	Doctor of Psychology	Carlos Albizu University
1992	Master of Arts - Psychology	University of Colorado
1989	Bachelor of Arts - Psychology	University of Central Florida

PUBLICATIONS

Rehabilitation of Balint's Syndrome: A Single Case Report. Applied Neuropsychology. 2001, Vol. 8, No. 4, 242-247.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

1. May 2026 – present Forensic and Clinical Psych Experts
Jupiter, Fl

Provide forensic evaluations (competency to proceed, mitigation, mental state at the time of the offense) for Florida Judicial Circuits, as well as for private attorneys. These evaluations include clinical/forensic interviews, and can additionally include risk of violence assessment, substance abuse assessments, psychosexual assessments, intelligence assessments, adaptive behavior assessments, neuropsychology assessments, and personality assessments. Additionally provide expert testimony in said cases.

Provide Clinical, Forensic, and Neuropsychological evaluations for Communities Connected for Kids and for ChildNet.

Conduct comprehensive evaluations for the Department of Juvenile Justice. These evaluations have included clinical interviews, substance abuse assessments, intelligence and academic assessments, adaptive behavior assessments, personality assessments, psychosexual assessments, and vocational assessments.

2. August 2007 – April 2026 Shanlis, Inc.
Palm City, Fl

Provide forensic evaluations (competency to proceed, mitigation, mental state at the time of the offense) for 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 5th, 10th, 14th, 15th, and 19th Florida Judicial Circuits, as well as for private attorneys. These evaluations include clinical/forensic interviews, and can additionally include risk of violence assessment, substance abuse assessments, psychosexual assessments, intelligence assessments, adaptive behavior assessments, neuropsychology assessments, and personality assessments. Additionally provide expert testimony in said cases.

Provide Clinical, Forensic, and Neuropsychological evaluations for Communities Connected for Kids and for ChildNet.

Conduct comprehensive evaluations for the Department of Juvenile Justice on a continuous basis since 2007. These evaluations have included clinical interviews, substance abuse assessments, intelligence and academic assessments, adaptive behavior assessments, personality assessments, psychosexual assessments, and vocational assessments.

Conduct assessments for the Florida Department of Disability Determinations on a continuous basis since 2007. These have also included clinical interviews, substance abuse assessments, intelligence and academic assessments, adaptive behavior assessments, neuropsychology assessments, and personality assessments.

3. August 2001 - August 2007 Private Practice
Sunrise, FL
June 2004 - August 2007 Private Practice
Jensen Beach, FL

Administered Full Battery psychological and neuropsychological evaluations with adult and child populations, primarily for Children's Home Society and ChildNet. Provided expert testimony in forensic cases involving said agencies. Provided instructional seminars on clinical issues with various clinical and educational agencies. Provided parenting seminars. Provided individual therapy with adult and child populations, as well as couples, family, and group therapy.

4. July 2001 - May 2004 Pinecrest Rehabilitation Hospital
Delray Beach, FL

Conducted psychological evaluations, including clinical interview and psychological testing of chronic pain population. Instructor of daily psycho-educational classes on pain management. Provided individual therapy, group therapy, and biofeedback to chronic pain population.

5. August 2000 - June 2001 Carlos Albizu University – Miami, FL

Adjunct Professor for courses of Introduction to Neuropsychology, and of Functional Human Anatomy.